

Attractions/Museums

(Page 1 of 2)

| FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE | DESCRIPTION |
|--|---|
| 21C Museum 700 W. Main St. / 502-217-6300 www.21cmuseum.org | North America's first museum dedicated solely to collecting and exhibiting contemporary art of the 21st century. Provides a unique venue for commissioned artwork. |
| 4th Street Live! Louisville Fourth & Muhammad Ali / 502-584-7170 www.4thstlive.com | Urban entertainment center opened in 2004 features a variety of restaurants, bars, nightclubs, and shops. |
| Archdiocese of Louisville History Center 424 S. Fifth St. / 502-582-2971 ext 113 www.cathedraloftheassumption.org | The center contains significant artifacts and information about the history of the Archdiocese of Louisville, which was founded in 1808. |
| Belle of Louisville/Spirit of Jefferson 401 W. River Rd. / 574-2992 www.belleoflouisville.com | The Belle, an authentic steam driven paddelwheeler, was originally built as the Idlewild in 1914. The Spirit, formally the Huck Finn, was built in 1962. Both are owned by Louisville Metro Government & offer public cruises along the Ohio River. |
| Brennan House and Medical Office Museum 631 S. Fifth St. / 502-540-5145 www.thebrennanhouse.org | The 1868 Italianate residence is preserved as the Brennan family left it, housing their collection of mid-nineteenth century art and furnishings. The medical office includes surgical instruments of the period, an examining table, and a medical library. |
| The Cressman Center for Visual Arts 100 E. Main St. / 502-852-0288 www.art.louisville.edu | Established in November, 2006, the center is home to the University of Louisville's Department of Fine Arts glass program. The facility features a hot shop and cold working studios, sculpture studios and shops, a seminar room, and galleries. |
| Thomas Edison House 729 E. Washington St. / 502-585-5247 www.edisonhouse.org | The 1850 home of Thomas Edison while he worked as a telegraph operator for Western Union. On display are some of Edison's original inventions. |
| Falls of the Ohio State Park 201 W. Riverside Dr. Clarksville, IN 812-280-9970 / www.fallsoftheohio.org | The 386-million-year-old fossil beds are among the largest naturally exposed Devonian fossil beds in the world. The park features an interpretive center overlooking the fossil beds containing an exhibit gallery and a video presentation. |
| The Frazier History Museum 829 W. Main St. / 502-753-5663 www.fraziermuseum.org | As the exclusive home of the Royal Armouries USA, the Frazier History Museum is a world-class museum that provides an unforgettable journey through more than 1,000 years of history with ever-changing and interactive exhibits, daily performances by costumed interpreters and engaging special events and programs. |

Attractions/Museums

(Page 2 of 2)

FACILITY

ADDRESS/PHONE

DESCRIPTION

The Glassworks

815 W. Market St. / 502-584-4510
www.louisvilleglassworks.com

The facility houses three working glass studios: glass blowing, flameworking, and architectural glass. Visitors can tour these studios and watch artists creating glass art.

Kentucky Museum of Art and Craft

715 W. Main St. / 502-589-0102
www.kentuckyarts.org

Features rotating exhibits of Kentucky artists and craftspeople of several media including glass, ceramics, fiber and textiles, metalwork and more. The emerging permanent collection of objects relate to the history of showing and promoting crafts in Kentucky.

Louisville Extreme Park

601 Franklin St. / 502-456-8100
www.louisvilleextremepark.org

The public skatepark provides skateboarding, in-line skating, and biking opportunities for people of all ages and skill levels. Opened in 2002, the facility includes 40,000 square feet of outdoor concrete skating surface, a 24 foot full-pipe, and a wooden vert ramp.

Louisville Science Center / IMAX Theatre

727 W. Main St. / 502-561-6100
www.louisvillescience.org

Major sciences are brought to life with interactive exhibits that engage your hands, your mind, and your imagination. An educational and entertaining destination for families includes over 40,000 sq. ft. of exhibits, special events, and an IMAX theatre.

Louisville Slugger Field

401 E. Main St. / 502-212-BATS
www.batsbaseball.com

The ballpark is home to the triple-A Louisville Bats baseball team. The retro-classic design of the stadium makes it one of the most attractive and admired parks in minor league baseball.

Louisville Slugger Museum & Factory

800 W. Main St. / 502-588-7236
www.sluggermuseum.org

Hillerich & Bradsby Co. has been manufacturing Louisville Slugger baseball bats since 1884. Visitors can watch bats being made as well as tour the museum that chronicles the impact this factory has had on the sport of baseball.

Muhammad Ali Center

144 N. Sixth St. / 502-584-9254
www.alicenter.org

An education and cultural center preserving the life and career of its visionary founder Muhammad Ali. The center provides an innovative and immersive visitor experience utilizing public programming and global initiatives to carry on Muhammad Ali's legacy and continue his life's work.

Waterfront Park

129 E. River Rd. / 502-574-3768
www.louisvillewaterfront.com

The 85-acre park includes a Great Lawn for games and concerts, a Festival Plaza for special events, two children's play areas, two restaurants, and a sculpted Linear Park with picnic areas, groves of trees, walking paths, and views up and down the Ohio River. A former railroad bridge will soon be converted into a pedestrian and bicycle path crossing the Ohio River connecting Louisville with Jeffersonville in Southern Indiana.

Attractions/Museums

(Page 3 of 3)