

Theaters/Performance Halls

(Page 1 of 2)

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	SEATING CAPACITY	DESCRIPTION OF VENUE
Actors Theatre of Louisville 316 W. Main St. / 502-584-1265 www.actors theatre.org		A Tony Award-winning resident professional theatre. Produces the Humana Festival of New American Plays, one of the most important events in American Theatre.
Bingham Theatre	318	Arena seating/theatre-in-the-round. Features Off-Broadway Series, Pop productions and summer musicals.
Pamela Brown Auditorium	633	Floor level and dress circle seating. Home of the 7-play Mainstage Series and holiday productions.
Victor Jory Theatre	159	Intimate, stage level seating. Features small scale and experimental productions.
W. L. Lyons Brown Theatre 315 W. Broadway / 502-562-0194 www.kentuckycenter.org	1,441	Owned by Greater Louisville Fund for the Arts and managed by the Kentucky Center, this historic theatre features state-of-the-art technology combined with Old World splendor to create a performance space that plays host to an array of performing arts presentations.
Bunbury Theatre at the Henry Clay 604 S. Third St. #301 / 502-585-5306 www.bunburytheatre.org	144	Founded in 1985, this intimate theater features enriching and diverse theatrical experiences in the spirit of Off-Broadway.
Frazier International History Museum 829 W. Main St. / 502-412-2280 www.fraziermuseum.org	48	Features a short orientation film that guides you through North America's history from colonization to independence to the early 1900s.
JCTC Fine Arts Center Recital Hall 109 E. Broadway / 502-213-5333 www.jefferson.kctcs.edu	135	Known as the "chapel", this space is home to productions of the college's drama and music departments, as well as special readings and lectures.
Kentucky Center for the Performing Arts 501 W. Main St. / 502-562-0100 www.kentuckycenter.org		This state-owned facility is home of several local arts organizations as well as national and international performances.
Moritz von Bomhard Theater	675	An intimate facility for musical performances and smaller-scale dance and theatre. Primarily used by Stage One, Louisville's Family Theater.
Clark-Todd Hall	180	A multipurpose hall used for several Kentucky Center presentations.
KentuckyShow!	100	A large screen, 32-minute multimedia experience that captures Kentucky's history, people, culture, economy, and geography.

Theaters/Performance Halls

(Page 2 of 2)

FACILITY ADDRESS/PHONE	SEATING CAPACITY	DESCRIPTION OF VENUE
The Kentucky Center (continued)
MeX Theater	139	A traditional "black box" theatre which provides a venue for original plays, innovative productions of the classics, music, dance, and literary readings.
Robert S. Whitney Hall	2,450	A multipurpose concert facility primarily used by the Broadway Series, Kentucky Opera, Louisville Ballet, Louisville Orchestra, and special event presentations.
The Gardens
525 W. Muhammad Ali / 502-574-0060		Owned and operated by Louisville Metro Government, this historic, multipurpose facility has the capabilities of producing large as well as intimate events.
Armory Street Theatre	600
Byck Arena	6,850
Louisville Memorial Auditorium 970 S. Fourth St. / 502-584-4911 www.louisvillememorialauditorium.com	1,742	This historic facility, owned by the Louisville Metro Government, was built as a memorial to commemorate those from Louisville and Jefferson County who served in World War I. The auditorium hosts concerts, graduations, and civic organization meetings.
Louisville Science Center/ IMAX Theatre 727 W. Main St. / 502-561-6100 www.louisvillescience.org	230	Presenting the latest and most popular IMAX films, this motion picture system provides a high fidelity audiovisual film experience with a strong sense of reality.
The Louisville Palace 625 S. Fourth St. / 502-583-4555 www.louisvillepalace.com	2,723	Privately owned, historic theatre serves as a venue for concerts and other performing arts productions including national and international performances. Also hosts a seasonal classic film series.
Louisville Slugger Museum &amp; Factory 800 W. Main St. / 502-588-7236 www.sluggermuseum.org	100	Features a 13 ½-minute inspirational film "The Heart of the Game" offering insights and anecdotes on hitting.
Muhammad Ali Center 144 N. Sixth St. / 502-584-9254 www.alicenter.org	165	Features 12-minute orientation film on Muhammad Ali's life and career viewed on five screens in a 270-degree configuration.
Spalding University Auditorium 824 S. Fourth St. / 502-585-5537	900	Features performances by Spalding University Drama Department, youth performing arts groups, and guest
Total	19,732	